

Payments NZ conference sponsorship

Simon Jensen, Renee Stiles

10 October 2016

Buddle Findlay is a proud sponsor of the C-Suite Keynote Panel for The Point 2016 next month in Auckland - New Zealand's premier payments conference bringing together the world's best minds to explore and debate how the industry can continuously evolve and improve New Zealand's payment system.

Buddle Findlay partner Simon Jensen will soon be talking to C-Suite Keynote panellists about their session on the role and importance of a progressive payments ecosystem, disruption, fragmentation and innovation in payments.

On Day 2 of the conference Buddle Findlay senior solicitor Katie Williams will join the panel discussion on blockchain and distributed ledgers and whether they are really fintech game changers.

To learn more about these two days packed with market intelligence from industry thought leaders and discussions on topical payments issues international trade and the economy, disruption and fragmentation, infrastructure and emerging platforms, innovation and technology, cyber-security, the customer experience, and much more, see here.

Buddle Findlay has New Zealand's leading payments team with over 30 years combined payments experience.
