

Buddle Findlay appoints two new partners

Lisette Hood, David Broadmore

1 January 2017

National law firm Buddle Findlay is pleased to announce the appointment of two new partners in its Auckland office effective 1 January 2017.

David Broadmore is a member of the litigation team and specialises in commercial litigation. He has extensive experience in resolving insolvency, professional negligence, property, construction, insurance and contractual disputes. He advises and acts for financial institutions, insolvency practitioners, insurers, public bodies and private and corporate clients.

Lisette Hood is a member of the corporate team and specialises in corporate law, commercial contracting and mergers and acquisitions. Lisette advises our national and international clients (in both the public and private sector) on transactional issues relevant to investment in New Zealand based assets, complex commercial supply agreements, regulatory compliance and corporate governance issues.
