5 October 2018

Buddle Findlay's competition/antitrust team has authored the New Zealand chapter on cartels for Lexology's global Q&A guide 'Navigator'.

Our competition/antitrust team is New Zealand's leading practice when it comes to understanding and advising on the Commerce Act 1986. This chapter provides an overview of the aspects of the Commerce Act that prohibit cartels, including the recent amendments to expand the types of prohibited cartel conduct, and how the Commerce Commission enforces the Act.

Read the New Zealand cartels guide here.

If you have any queries or concerns about how the Commerce Act 1986 affects you and your organisation, please contact a member of our team.

This chapter was written by Tony Dellow (partner), Susie Kilty (partner), Jessica White (senior associate) and Dipti Manchanda (senior solicitor).
